20.Venti Home and Home Light are the compact and versatile versions of the 20.Venti family, designed by 967arch, offering a contemporary reinterpretation of the traditional desk.

These solutions perfectly address the needs of dynamic and flexible work, even in a home setting. Designed to create dedicated home office spaces, 20.Venti Home and Home Light blend seamlessly into environments that balance periods of focused work with occasional activities. Beyond domestic spaces, these pieces are equally suited to various operational contexts, such as libraries, hotels, schools, and colleges.

As with the office version, 20.Venti Home and Home Light feature the same minimalist 2x2 cm profile and provide a high level of customisation with a wide range of colours and finishes.
